

Reside Celebrate the Royal Wedding

Residents at Reside Care Home in Christchurch celebrated the Royal wedding in style. They dressed up in their best wedding outfits, designed their own hats and waved their flags to the processions.

Staff made a large Union Jack cake especially for the occasion and the celebratory lunch included a drinks fountain, strawberries and cream and lots of party food.

